PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

WIIVV — San Diego, California

Software Engineer/QA, Sept. 2015 – May 2016

Wiivv is a bionics company that specializes in custom 3D printed insoles. As a Software Engineer and QA, I helped build, maintain, and test a robust backend software platform with a close and highly focused team. This required skill in C#, HTML, ASP.NET, and the Entity Framework.

FAIRWAY — San Luis Obispo, California

Student Intern, May 2013 – June 2015

Fairway is a locally based management firm in San Luis Obispo with 100+ employees focusing in the recreation (golf course) and hospitality (food service) industries. I assisted the Administrative team with various job duties and special assignments, including projects that met deadlines and dealt with Excel.

CAL POLY MATH DEPARTMENT— San Luis Obispo, California

Grader, March 2014 – June 2015

For the Cal Poly Math Department, and specifically Dr. Lawrence Sze, I served as a grader. I graded quizzes and homework for high level math classes such as Calculus, Game Theory, Number Theory, and Combinatorics.
